Demarest Lloyd in an address at the University of Virginia on July 9, 1935, said:

There has been an interlocking board of directorates all the way from the Federal Council of Churches to the most extreme communists. Chapter and verse were furnished by Major General Amos A. Fries at a hearing before the House Immigration Committee on the Griffin Bill, Jan. 26, 1932.

BY REV. CHAS. E. COUGHLIN

A TRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON

Sunday, February 21, 1932

4 P. M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME

These programs are in no wise donated. However, there are no authorized solicitors representing Father Coughlin in the sale of Books, Statues, or any other commercial or religious articles. His finances are cared for by his radio audience who join the League and who correspond with him directly.

THE REAL FATHER COUGHLIN

BY A. B. MAGIL

Scene one: Madison Square Garden, New York, February 20, 1939. The German-American Bund, chief Nazi organization in the United States, is holding a meeting, supposedly in honor of the birthday of George Washington. The audience consists mostly of German members and sympathizers of the Bund. Uniformed storm troopers known as Ordnungsdienst police the meeting. There are boos and jeers for President Roosevelt, Secretary of Commerce Hopkins, Secretary of the Interior Ickes and other liberal Americans, who are described as Jews and Communists. There is applause for others—anti-New Deal Representative Martin Dies, Herbert Hoover, Boake Carter, General Hugh Johnson. But the biggest applause of the evening—a real ovation—is reserved for one name: Father Coughlin. Heil. . .

Scene two: An American home, anywhere, any Sunday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. A rich, dramatic voice comes over the radio. Thousands are hearing it say:

"This is America—a re-awakened America—an America that stands 100 per cent for Americanism—an America that will have no patience either with Nazism or Communism; an America that still stands by the traditions of our forefathers—traditions of liberty, traditions of Godliness, traditions upon which we must establish a sane Christian nationalism."

Americanism? Yes, that's what America stands for—the traditions of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln. But is this the Americanism that Father Coughlin stands for? Why was his
